

All Saints and the ecumenical movement in Marseille

The Week of Prayer for Christian unity saw two of All Saints members joining an ecumenical service on 21st January 2019, at the Protestant church, Magnan.

Anne Roumieu and Roxana Teleman (ordinand in training) attended the service led by Protestant and Catholic clergy, and amongst a gathering of Catholic, Reformed church and Anglican worshippers.

The two associations ACAT (Association des chrétiens pour l'abolition de la torture) and WDP (World Day of Prayer) joined together for this service.
