

CLEAN UP ON AISLE ONE

10 September 2015

Last Sunday we had a large group in church as well as an active parish lunch. Normally one does a big house cleaning BEFORE the guests arrive, but there was neither time nor a desire to do a major scrub during the heat of August; but folks coming to All Saints will notice a slight change this coming Sunday. A small but mighty task force has been sorting, wiping, washing and polishing in a big late summer clean up.

Cynthia sweeping (Left), Amanda sorting (centre background) and Helen wiping (right) were a cleaning force to be reckoned with.

Some of our “stuff” has been chucked in the bin and some has gone off to new homes. Much of the brassware is again gleaming brightly and ready to reflect the light shining forth from amid the congregation.

Anyone desiring to do so, can thank some little angels: Helen Brooking, Caroline Millon, Tim & Amanda Haste and David & Cynthia Greenwood.

Caroline Millon and Tim Haste polish the brass lectern.